HOSPITALITY & CO.—Agents Wanted.

O. W. UNIVERSITY.—The services connected with the annual Commencement of the institution, commencing Sunday and closing last evening, have been witnessed by audiences limited only by the utmost limits of accommodation afforded by the spacious building in which they have been conducted—and everything from the examination of classes to the closing reunion at the hospitable mansion of the worthy President, passed off pleasantly and to the entire satisfaction of all parties interested.

Indisposition and a multiplicity of pressing engagements prevented our witnessing the ceremonies incident to the occasion, or hearing any of the addresses delivered, except the Baccalaureate of the President, which was one of those finished, eloquent and impressive productions for which a distinguished author is so well and widely known. The addresses of the several gentlemen from abroad are also highly spoken of, and seem to have been generally admired.

The graduating class is an unusually large one—numbering twenty-four—and includes a number of young gentlemen of great promise, some of whose efforts were said to be of a high order, and would compare favorably with the best of those elsewhere produced on like occasions.

O. W. FEMALE COLLEGE.—The examination of classes in this flourishing and meritorious institution passed off in a highly satisfactory manner—and the commencement exercises at the William St. M. E. Church, Wednesday last, were witnessed by a large and appreciative audience. The young ladies of the graduating class acquitted themselves admirably, and the Baccalaureate of President DONALSON is spoken of in terms of admiration by all who were so fortunate as to hear it. We copy from the programme the subjoined list of young ladies who read compositions and the subjects they severally selected:

Un Appel Touchant—Miss Mary M. Dickinson and its Antagonism—Miss Julia H. Ayers.

We Are Ready!—Miss Susan M. Dickey, Hero and Herse—Miss Rachel A. Morrow.

The World's Gas Lights—Miss Mary S. Pitcher.

Habits developed by Principle—Miss Caroline Shipley.

Das Schone—Miss Cordelia G. Eston, (3d.)

"The night is far spent—Miss Eliza O. Bell.

The Voices of Nature—Miss Eva D. Griffin.

No More!—Miss Anna C. Irwin.

The Chain of Mystery—Miss Mary Johnson.

They Can Who Will—Miss N. De Vane Mitchell.

The World's Clock—Miss Julia P. Stanley.

The number of strangers in town the present week, drawn hither by the annual Commencement exercises in the O. W. University and the O. W. Female College has been unusually large, embracing many distinguished personages, including Gov. CHASE.

We understand steps have been taken for getting up a celebration of the anniversary of our national independence in this place. A celebration of the day will also come off in Curtis' Grove, Genoa township. The 4th coming on Sunday this year, the preceding day (Saturday 3d) will generally be selected for celebration purposes.

SELF SEALING CANS.—The advertisement of Mr. EVANS, who manufactures on an extensive scale a superior article of self-sealing Fruit Cans, will be found in our paper of to-day. We believe it is generally conceded by those who have tried Branwhite's Can, that it is decidedly the best article of its kind in use. They were tested in our family last season, and gave perfect satisfaction. All who put up fruit should give Mr. E. a call.

Reference to an advertisement of the Board of Managers of the Delaware Agricultural Society, it will be seen that a trial of Reapers and Mowers will come off on the 6th prox.—and that suitable premiums offered by the Society, will be contended for at that time. As the entire farming community is interested in witnessing the operations and ascertaining the merits of the several machines soliciting their patronage, the attendance on this occasion will doubtless be large.

ORNAMENTAL PAINTING.—We have seen some fine specimens of the ORIENTAL, GREEK, and ITALIAN Landscape Painting, executed by scholars of Mr. MITCHELL, who is stopping a few days at the Shoub House.—He is prepared to impress full and ample instructions in the above branches, and also the Celestial painting for the small ones of our class.

ALMOST EVERYBODY HAS HEARD OF MARY'S AGUE BALSAM.—The attention of our numerous readers is directed to the advertisement of Dr. J. W. HICKS, in which he states that the high estimation that is placed upon this, the greatest remedy known to modern science. We have never seen any article in the press that gives a share of public confidence in so short a time as this has done. If we may be allowed to judge from the number of letters we have received, particularly when we see such testimonies from all parts of the country. There can be no doubt that the new discovery will receive the approbation and esteem of our readers and the public. Sold by all good druggists.

Holbrooke's Ointment and Pills.—Blotches, pimples, dry eruptions, and all irritations of the skin, face and dispenses after a fever application. Holbrooke's Ointment and Pills are a most valuable medicine, and the best for the cure of these plagues under the sun.

Special Term District Court.—The consequences of the failure to hold the term of the District Court for the County of Delaware, Ohio, fixed for the 1st day of June, 1858, are now fully known. The trial of the Judges of said Court to a term, as ordered by the undersigned Judges of the Court of Supreme Justice, was held in the County of Delaware, on the 1st day of June, 1858, before the Hon. G. W. LADDIES, and the Hon. G. W. ASHLEY, Judge of Supreme Court. The trial was had for the purpose of determining whether the Hon. G. W. LADDIES, and the Hon. G. W. ASHLEY, Judge of Supreme Court, were guilty of malfeasance in office, or of other conduct unbecoming the office of Judge of Supreme Court.

Mr. LADDIES, and the Hon. G. W. ASHLEY, Judge of Supreme Court, were found guilty of malfeasance in office, and were sentenced to pay a fine of $1000 each, and to be suspended from the bench for one year.
